

The Printing House Limited Receives CIBC 'Spirit of Leadership' Community Award for Community Spirit and Corporate Giving Excellence

TORONTO, Feb. 14 The Printing House Limited, a recognized leader in the printing industry with over 60 company-owned locations across Canada, received the CIBC "Spirit of Leadership" Community Award recognizing their community spirit and corporate giving programs. This prestigious award recognized TPH[®]'s community spirit and corporate giving programs through their TPH[®] Charitable Office. As part of the award, CIBC Commercial Banking will donate $5,000 in recognition and support of The Printing House Limited's outstanding accomplishments.

"I am emotionally moved by the exceptional recognition CIBC has bestowed upon The Printing House Limited. TPH[®] sincerely wishes to praise CIBC for their vision and encouragement they give to corporations to expand their community giving. By receiving this award our employees realize even more that "Helping Others Help Themselves" really does pay off," said Earle O'Born, President & CEO, The Printing House Limited.

"The Printing House's fundraising efforts and commitment to the communities in which they do business have proven them to be a true corporate citizen. CIBC Commercial Banking is proud to be the financial partner of The Printing House Limited," said James McSherry, Managing Director and Executive Vice-President, CIBC Commercial Banking.
